

THE MILLENNIUM: 1

In 1999, Paul Hotston, a village resident and photographer, was commissioned to make a record of life in the village throughout the Millennium year. He produced many black and white photos of activities and events. Some of them are reproduced here - a reminder of the many faces of village life that were and still are often mentioned in our very own Steeple Aston Life.

